APTA EXPO 2005: Worldwide Public Transit Forum To Be Held in Dallas in September 2005

APTA EXPO 2005, the public transportation industry's triennial professional exposition and conference, will be held at the Dallas Convention Center from September 26-28, 2005.

More than 16,000 industry professionals and 800 exhibitors from around the globe will attend to showcase new products and technology, network with other transportation leaders, and exchange ideas and information about transit services and issues.

A variety of special opportunities and services will be provided for the expo's international attendees, including an international VIP reception, private meeting rooms in the Center for International Commerce, match-making services, translators, International Buyer Program (IBP) representatives, and support materials for organizing a delegation or buying team.

Expo 2005 will showcase a broad range of transit products and services and will focus on public and private bus, charter, and tour transit; rail transit; railroad and railway commuter transit; government transit; public utility; computers and security.

The American Public Transit Association is a participant in the U.S. Commercial Service's International Buyer Program. Delegations and buying teams are encouraged to attend and will be fully supported.

More information about leading a delegation, attending as an individual or exhibiting at Expo 2005 is available at APTA's Web site, www.apta.com/expo2005 or by sending e-mail to: pcardwell@ntpshow.com
